Re: Business and Languages Conference, 4.07.08

Dear Mark,

A massive thank you for agreeing to deliver the keynote speech at our first conference at the University of Nottingham.

We all found your talk interesting and inspiring. The pupils will have certainly got the message on the important role languages will play in their future careers. The way you dealt with the technological failure proved that you are a consummate professional.

I hope that we can ask you to speak at next year's conference too.

Once again our sincere gratitude for your time and your valuable contribution to the day.

Very best wishes
